Overview

Moonika Raidam is a freelance film editor based in Tallinn, Estonia, with over 10 years of experience in the film industry. Since earning her bachelor's degree from the Baltic Film, Media, and Arts School (BFM) in 2017, she has edited a wide range of projects, including 10 feature films, as well as numerous shorts, documentaries, music videos, and commercials. Throughout her career, she has collaborated with a diverse group of filmmakers, both nationally and internationally, from seasoned professionals to those new to audiovisual storytelling. This broad and varied experience has allowed her to develop a versatile editing style, enabling her to effectively bring each unique narrative to life.

Recent Projects

- Fränk (2025, Allfilm) – The feature film debut of Tõnis Pill, Fränk follows a 13-year-old boy who is sent away from an abusive home. On a path of self-destruction, he is unexpectedly stopped by a very unusual man. The film became a local box office hit and is on its way to entering the Top 10 most-watched films in Estonia
- Lioness (2024, Allfilm) – A psychological thriller about a mother-daughter relationship gone wrong, directed by Liina Trishkina-Vanhatalo
- Estonia (2023, Fisher King) – A TV series chronicling the deadliest peacetime shipwreck in European waters, which claimed the lives of 852 people. Estonia was selected for the Primetime segment of the 2023 Toronto International Film Festival.

Moonika recently completed work on Jan Uuspõld Goes Home (2025, Apollo Films), the sequel to the Estonian cult classic 186 Kilometers (2007) by Rain Tolk and Andres Maimik, and has since moved on to her next project – O'Slaughter Day (Downtown Pictures), a dark Christmas comedy directed by Ove Musting, set to premiere in autumn 2026.
